VOTE! What's at stake this election:

Justice Daniel Kelly needs your support to preserve the balance on the Supreme Court. Without your help, the election on April 4th could drastically harm the firearm rights of everyone in Wisconsin.

Daniel Kelly's opponent is an extremely liberal circuit court judge with no experience on the Supreme Court and has made statements about her left wing beliefs and how she will use those beliefs on the Court.

Justice Daniel Kelly has served on the Supreme Court and has demonstrated a respect for the law as it is written and has a philosophy against activism from the bench

--that his decisions are based on the Constitution and the Constitutional laws enacted by the legislature.

There is a lot at stake this election. A liberal majority with no respect for the rule of law could use the Court to undo laws we hold dear. For example, at the stroke of a Justice's pen they could outlaw the castle doctrine, conceal carry laws, and many other's.

It is your duty to get out and VOTE this April 4th. Find your voting location at myvote.wi.gov

Your Contributions Matter!

We can't have much of a newsletter without news, and that's where you can play an important part!

After all this is YOUR NEWSLETTER!

Any contributions, large or small, are gratefully appreciated. Whether it be text, photos or graphics, they are all welcome. It could be important "hard" news — light (nice-to-know) news — or even editorial opinions.

There are only a few things we ask:

- Make sure your work is original, not just copied from another source (with your name as author);
- If you are briefly quoting a source, be sure to include the name of the source;
- Double-check to make sure the spelling of names and references are accurate;
- If you're submitting a photo, the larger the file size the better. DON'T bother editing it, we'll take care of that;
- If people can be easily recognized in your photo, be sure to include their name and title or position (i.e. Senator);
- If the photo is taken in public, a "release" shouldn't be necessary. But if the photo was taken in a private setting, legally your safest bet is to get a "release". After all, who can afford a lawsuit? (Contact us for more info)
- Most important: Include your name, contact information (phone, email) and topic source.

Imagine — Your name in print !!!

WFO Article Submission: Image and Text "Releases"

Some of our readers expressed concern, when considering submission of an article for our newsletter, about Copyright laws pertaining to "releases" for names and images.

According to Stanford Libraries: Copyright and Fair Use, these guidelines would apply (Reprinted with permission):

When to Use a Release

Whether you need to obtain a release depends on why you want to use a person's name or image. If your use is for commercial purposes— for example, using a person's photo in an advertisement—you need to obtain a release. If your use is for informational purposes such as a documentary film or news article, you may not need a release.

Informational Uses

You do not need a release to use a person's name or image for informational purposes. An informational (or "editorial") purpose is anything that informs, educates, or expresses opinions protected under the First Amendment of the United States Constitution—freedom of speech and of the press. An informational use would include using a person's name or photograph in a newspaper or magazine article, educational program, film, nonfiction book, or informational website.
